

CHEERS: Kotak Securities (top) won the title after edging out Antares Publishing (below).

Kotak Securities bags trophy

Kotak Securities emerged the winner once again in the Ad club Madras football tournament, a five-a-side event organised in the city recently.

This is the third edition of this tournament, which is slowly gaining importance.

Kotak won the title after edging out Antares Publishing 2-1 in the final. In all six teams had taken part in this edition.

At the prize distribution function later, P. Subramanian, President, Advertising Club, Madras was the chief guest and gave away medals and trophy to the winning team while R. Seshadri, Past President gave away the runners-up trophy.

Also present on the occasion were Seshadri Iyer, Vice President and Covenor (Sports) and Karthic Moorthy, Club Secretary.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT